Counsel for MACo Workers' Compensation Trust

IN THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF THE STATE OF MONTANA
WCC No. 9907-8274R1

ALEXIS RAUSCH, et al.

Petitioners,

v.

MONTANA STATE FUND,

Respondent/Insurer,

and

JEREMY RUHD,

Petitioner,

v.

LIBERTY NORTHWEST INSURANCE CORPORATION,

Respondent/Insurer.

RESPONSE OF MACo WORKERS' COMPENSATION TRUST

COMES NOW the MACo Workers' Compensation Trust, by and through its attorney, and responds to the Court's Order as follows.

Because of the change in computer systems, as well as a change in third-party administration, it will take a period of time to respond to the Court's Order. The MACo

Workers' Compensation Trust is not objecting to providing the information; but it will take a period of time to provide a response.

Personnel who administer the MACo Workers' Compensation Trust believe they can have the information within approximately one month. It will require personnel to go through extensive files to gather the information requested.

The Trust will attempt to provide the information to the Court by March 14, 2005.

DATED this 14th day of February, 2005.

NORMAN H. GROSFIELD, Attorney for MACo Workers' Compensation Trust
