RE: Reesor v. State Fund
WCC No. 2002-0676

Dear Jackie:

After reviewing the Court's list of insurance company appearances in the Reesor Common Fund matter, I determined that the Court had not received a copy of the enclosed letter. I attach a copy of American Safety Insurance's letter dated 6/21/05. As you can see, this letter states that Legion Insurance Company went bankrupt on 7/28/03, but there is no explanation as to why American Safety Insurance is responding on behalf of Legion Insurance Company. In fact, no one from American Safety Insurance signed the enclosed letter. Will the Court consider this letter as an appearance for Legion Insurance Company and/or American Safety Casualty Insurance?

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Murphy

Re: Legion Insurance Correspondence

Dear Mr. Murphy:

Attached you will find correspondence regarding Legion Insurance claims that were sent to our office in error. On July 28, 2003, Legion Insurance Company went bankrupt and is no longer solvent. Please direct all further correspondence and communication to the appropriate State Fund for processing.

Should you need any information on any Legion Insurance claims, including loss runs or status reports, you will need to contact the Department of Insurance in the state in which the accident occurred.

Sincerely,

American Safety Insurance
