IN THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF THE STATE OF MONTANA
WCC No. 2002-0676

DALE REESOR,

Petitioner,

vs.

MONTANA STATE FUND,

Respondent/Insurer.

ANSWER OF
HOME STATE COUNTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY
INTEGON NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY
NATIONAL AND GENERAL ASSURANCE COMPANIES
MOTORS INSURANCE CORPORATION
GENERAL MOTORS MIC PROPERTY AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY
REGARDING COMMON FUND ATTORNEY FEE LIEN

FIRST DEFENSE

The above-listed insurance companies have no claims which fall within the parameters of the Court's Order of April 22, 2005. Upon information and belief, the above-referenced insurance companies had no claims involving the payment of permanent-partial disability benefits which were then reduced or eliminated by operation of § 39-7-710, M.C.A.

CTB

SECOND DEFENSE

In the alternative, although not anticipated, should the above-listed insurance companies be found to have had one or more claimants whose benefits are subject to the proposed lien, answering Respondents allege that the proposed lien is excessive.

THIRD DEFENSE

The proposed lien interferes with the rights of the claimants to contract with private attorneys of their own choosing to represent them.

FOURTH DEFENSE

As this court has no "class action" rule, reference is made to Rule 23 M.R.Civ.P., pursuant to Rule 24.5.352. This "common fund" is an attempt to create a "class action," in effect, without providing the procedural and constitutional safeguards which would attend to a true class action.

Having answered the "Notice of Attorney's Fee Lien" and Court Order dated April 22, 2005, answering Respondents request:

1. That they be dismissed from this action as having no claims subject to the potential common fund or orders relative thereto;
2. That the Court award costs due to the unnecessary joinder of answering Respondents.

DATED this 6th day of June, 2005.
