Re: Schmill v. Liberty Northwest Ins. Corp. & MSF
WCC 2001-0300

Dear Jackie:

This is to confirm the understanding we reached today by telephone regarding reimbursement for copying expenses my office incurs when copying pleadings and other documents filed in the Schmill case as related to my special master work. We agreed that my office will invoice the Court at the rate of ten cents per page for the first 100 pages of a copying job, and five cents per page for the remaining pages.

Thanks very much for your assistance with this matter.

Very truly yours,

Jay P. Dufrechou
