Counsel:

It appears everyone is in agreement that the Court forward the responses from potential Flynn claimants to Cris McCoy at the State Fund who will record the responses and pay those that are due. The Court will not keep track of the responses. It is our understanding that the State Fund will forward the responses of claimants with deficiencies to Rex Palmer and will report quarterly on payments. Finally, we understand that counsel are working on an agreement as to the percentage to be withheld for attorney fees and contact the court when they have reached an agreement.

We would also propose that we retain the original forms. We would pay and keep track of the payments and report on an agreed basis—maybe quarterly. We also assume we would hold back something for fees—perhaps 25%—but we need Rex's agreement on that. We will also do a letter that goes with the payments. We are working on a simple process to check on address problems as they arise.

Brad,

Thank you for your reply. I'm still waiting to hear back from Rex. We will proceed as you set forth below unless Rex has any objections.

By copy of his e-mail, I'm asking Rex if he is in agreement with this procedure.

Thank you.

Jackie:

Sorry I didn't get back to you in this today. Lets talk about it tomorrow when you are free. I should be here all day.

I agree that the forms should be forwarded to the Fund. They should go to the attention of Cris McCoy who will organize them. The way the agreement reads we would send those with deficiencies to Rex and pay those that are otherwise due.

We can discuss the process tomorrow. Thanks for your help.
