RE: Resetting Great Falls Trial Docket

As you are all aware, James Jeremiah Shea will become the Judge of the Workers' Compensation Court on September 7, 2005. In the next few weeks, Judge McCarter will be focusing on writing the decisions in cases already submitted to him. For that reason, the following Great Falls cases set for trial during the week of September 5, 2005, are being reset to the next regularly scheduled trial docket the week of January 9, 2006. The pretrial conferences will be conducted the week of December 26, 2005. (Proposed pretrial orders will be due on Thursday, December 22, 2005.)

2004-1091 Robinson v. Montana State Fund
2004-1182 Rowin v. MHA Workers' Compensation Trust
2005-1226 Amelsberg v. General Insurance Company of America
2005-1270 Partridge v. St. Paul Fire & Marine Insurance Company
2005-1276 Lindeman v. Montana State Fund
2005-1306 Carlson v. Transportation Insurance Company
2005-1310 Gapay v. Montana State Fund
2005-1318 Johnson v. Montana State Fund
2005-1319 St. Germain v. Montana State Fund
2005-1329 Dess v. Montana State Fund
2005-1337 Gamble v. K-Mart Corporation
2005-1339 Smith v. Northwestern National Insurance Company
2005-1340 King v. Liberty Northwest Insurance Corporation
2005-1342 Martin v. Liberty Northwest Insurance Corporation

The dates set out in the scheduling orders previously issued in the above cases will remain in effect. However, if the parties wish to have a new scheduling order issued with new discovery deadlines, please contact the Clerk's office at 444-7794 and your request will be accommodated if all parties in the case agree.

Thank you.
